

Pacific University's Master of Social Work Program Presents

Why Are People Fleeing Mexico & Central America?

Please join us for an evening with Grahame Russell of Rights Action. Grahame will be speaking on and showing film clips about the underlying conditions that force tens of thousands of people from Mexico and Central America to flee their home country every year. These underlying conditions include economic and foreign policy decisions from the global north, environmental and economic exploitation, poverty, repression, and violence.

WHEN: THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5TH 6-8PM

WHERE: Pacific University, Eugene Campus 40 E. Broadway, Classroom #A

For more information contact:

Michele Eggers, eggersm@pacificu.edu or 541.485.6812 ext. 3929

Grahame Russell is the founder and co-director of Rights Action (rightsaction.org), a U.S. and Canadian-based human rights organization. He is a non-practicing lawyer, author, and Adjunct Professor at the University of Northern British Columbia (UNBC). For over 10 years Grahame lived in Mexico and Central America working with grassroots organizations and NGOs on environment, development, and human rights issues.