

PHOTOGRAPHY

TIMBER CULTURE

EXHIBIT

Race & Equity in Oregon Logging Culture

Come explore a hidden gem of Oregon's timber history -- when black loggers seeking work and racial equality helped shape Oregon's forestry industry!

March 27 - April 12

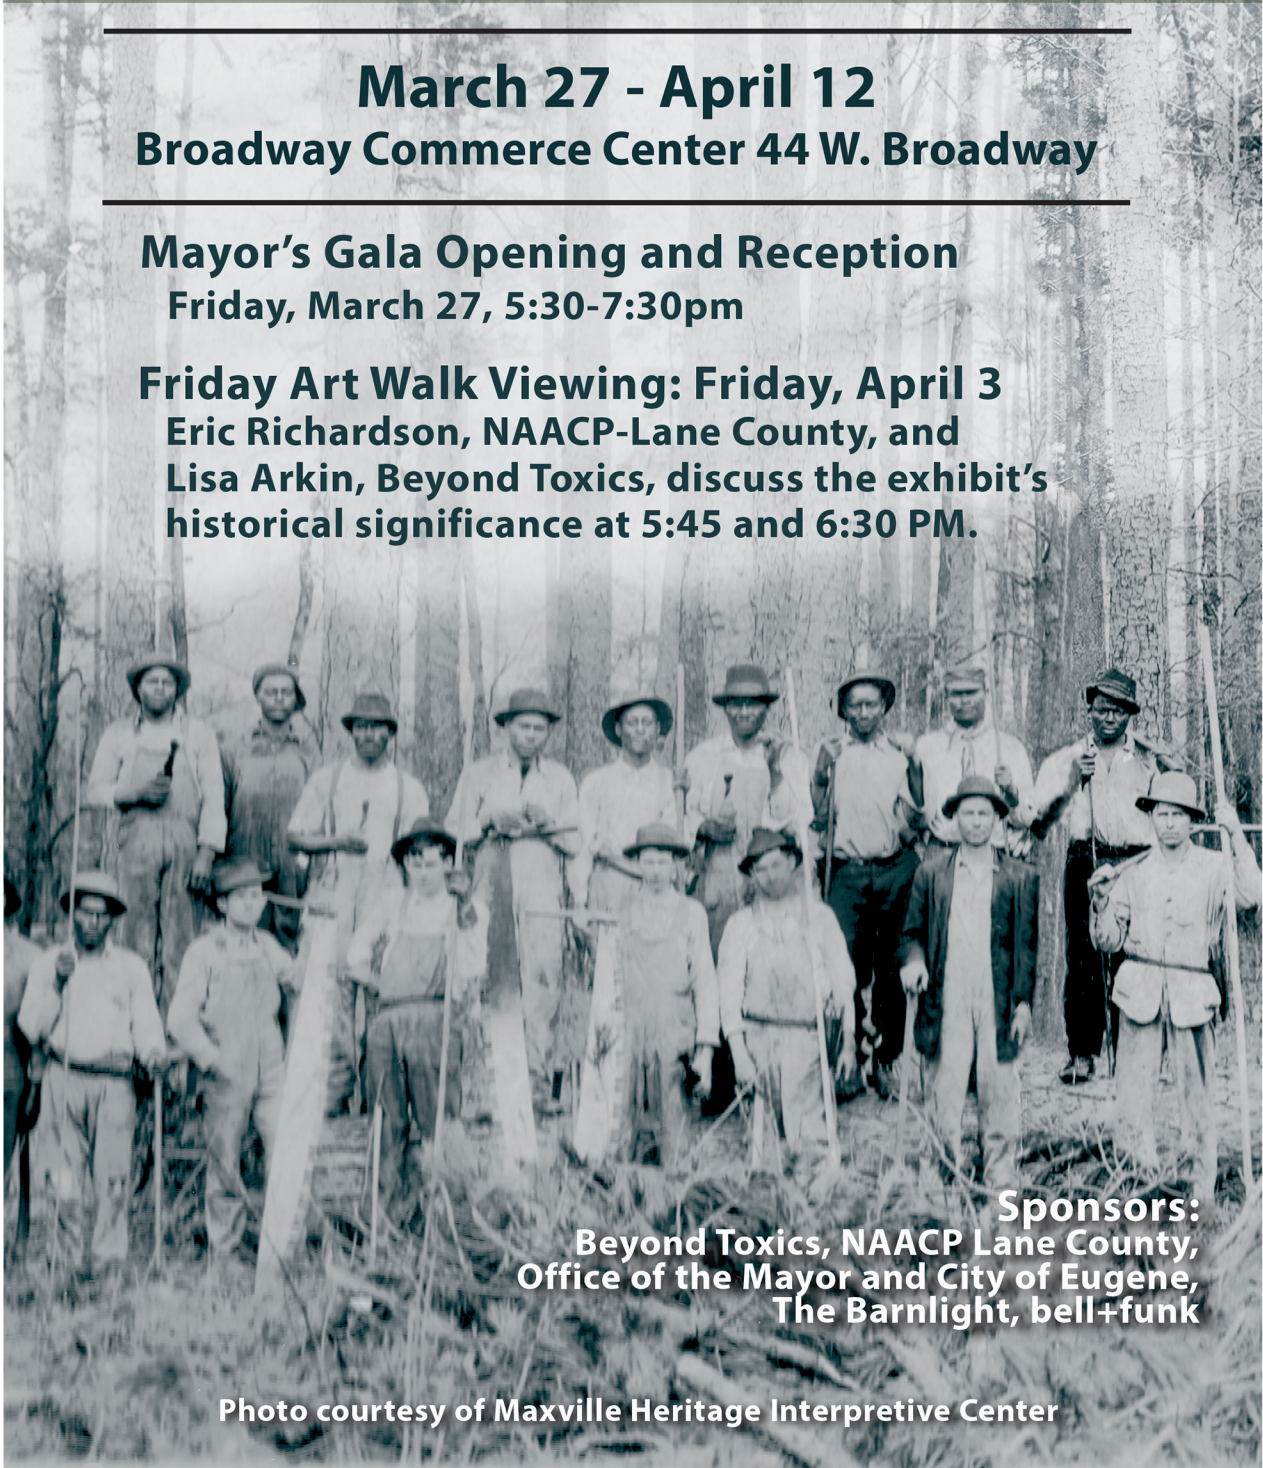

Broadway Commerce Center 44 W. Broadway

Mayor's Gala Opening and Reception

Friday, March 27, 5:30-7:30pm

Friday Art Walk Viewing: Friday, April 3

Eric Richardson, NAACP-Lane County, and Lisa Arkin, Beyond Toxics, discuss the exhibit's historical significance at 5:45 and 6:30 PM.

Sponsors:
Beyond Toxics, NAACP Lane County,
Office of the Mayor and City of Eugene,
The Barnlight, bell+funk

Photo courtesy of Maxville Heritage Interpretive Center